About us

Glandon Apartments combines drive with experience – putting relentless enthusiasm to the task of connecting people across borders. We have a vision of using Swiss precision and rigour to revolutionise the furnished rentals sector. Visions are there to be realised, and that's exactly what we are doing with ours.

We already have an extensive, constantly growing network of first-class apartment buildings and a simple, efficient booking process. We also pride ourselves on being a reliable intermediary, fully checking all of our listings for professionalism and quality. In consequence, every apartment that we offer provides exceptional comfort – in combination with equally exceptional prices.

We place great emphasis on establishing and nurturing personal relationships with corporate clients. This helps us to offer the best level of service and achieve the very best results, even if challenging economic times. We will be happy to arrange an individual consultation if you would like to find out more about what Glandon Apartments can offer.
